

Provisional Programme

Saturday, May 1st

- 8.30 am Doors open for Registration
- 9.15 Introduction by Stephen Hirtenstein
- 9.30 George Pattison: Kierkegaard's teaching on Absolute Dependence.
- 10.30 Coffee
- 11.00 Jane Clark: "He governs the world through itself" –
Ibn 'Arabī on spiritual causation.
- 12.00 Ringu Tulku Rinpoche: *Spiritual and Material:
Appearance is the Unsurpassed Protection.*
- 1.00 pm Lunch
- 3.45 Tea
- 4.15 Informal seminars with the speakers running concurrently.
- 7.00 Dinner at restaurant (for those who have booked)

Sunday, May 2nd

- 9.15 Introduction
- 9.30 Samer Akkach: The Ontology of Love and the Agency of Desire in Ibn 'Arabī's Teaching.
- 10.30 Coffee
- 11.00 Faouzi Skali: *The path of spiritual chivalry (Futuwwa) according to Ibn Arabi:
wending one's way through action and contemplation.*
- 12.00 Jane Carroll: *The Circle and the Square – Seeing the spiritual
in the material world.*
- 1.00 Lunch
- 3.00 Informal seminars with the speakers running concurrently.
- 4.30 Tea and Symposium closes
- 6.30 There will be a showing at a nearby cinema of El-haimoune (Wanderers of the Desert), a film by director Nacer Khemir. It was the first film of his Desert Trilogy. Tickets can be bought on the day.

There may be changes to this programme. Updates will be posted on the Symposium page of the Society website.